To the R E A D E R.

THE following Collection was made at the desire, and by the assistance, of some of the most eminent Masters of Church Musick; who were perswaded, that the words of many valuable Anthems without the Notes, would be very useful to such as attend Cathedral Service.

In the beginning of the Reign of King Henry VIII. and some time before, many excellent Arts and Inventions, had either a Birth or Resurrection; which prov'd as the Dawn to the wonderful Reformation of our Church that soon after succeeded: Musick (among others) arose from the obscurity, under which it had been buried for many Ages, and was then improv'd, and has since flourished to such a degree, that we have no reason to envy any foreign Compositions.

In that Age, Mr. Tallis became famous all over Europe, for the Elegancy and Solemnity of his Musick; which recommended him to the Favour and Service of the King, who was himself particularly excellent in that Faculty, (as well as in other parts of Learning) and Compos'd the Anthem which begins gins this Collection: For although the name of Mr. Mundy has been printed to it, yet the late Learned and Reverend Dr. Aldrich, Dean of Christ Church in Oxford, has restor'd it to it's proper Author; and it is at present us'd in that Collegiate Church, as the Work of their Royal Founder.

Mr. Tallis had the advantage of a long life, and was Organist and Composer to King Henry VIII. King Edward VI. Queen Mary, and Queen Elizabeth; and thereby had the happiness of breeding some extraordinary Scholars, particularly Mr. Bird, whose excellent Compositions have ever been esteem'd by most Foreigners, as well as his own Country-men.

From the words set by those Masters, and their Scholars, and Successors, down to the famous Dr. Blow and Mr. Henry Purcell deceas'd, and Mr. Croft, and others now living; this Collection hath been made, being the best and most useful of their several Performances, and contains in all 235 Anthems.

The Full Anthems take up 16 Pages and make the First Part: The Verse Anthems, which begin but from the Reign of King Charles I. (being seldom us'd before that time) compose the Second; in both of which, which, all imaginable care has been taken, to insert none but what were likely to live.

The several Masters in the Country, who have been pleas'd to transmit the Anthems most us'd in their respective Churches, may observe, that such a number of each have been printed, as might make this Collection useful to them, without swelling beyond it's design'd Bulk: And to such Gentlemen the Collector takes this opportunity of returning his Thanks for their Favours.

In digesting both Full and Verse Anthems, care has been taken to place them according to the time of their Composition; but where later Authors have begun with the same words, as have been used by former Masters, altho' the Bodies of the Anthems differ, yet in regard to such beginnings, they are plac'd immediately one after the other; that the Eye turning from the Index, may the more readily find that Anthem which it is looking for.

Some regard has been had to brevity in this Collection, that it might not only be portable, but fit to bind with Common Prayer Books; which has been the reason, that where the same Anthems have been set by several Masters, the words are not repeated so many times, only those most us'd are printed, with such Additions and Alterations as others have made, added afterwards.

For the same reason the usual Marginal Notes, as Solo, Chorus, Base, Tenor, &c. have been omitted; which otherwise, wou'd have very much swol'n the Bulk, by making too many Repetitions: Besides, such Notes are foreign to this Design, which was not so much intended to regard the Composition of the Musick, as to be a guide to the understanding of what is Sung, and so become a help to Devotion.

After the Anthems, follow two Index's; one being according to the Order of the Books of Scripture the Anthems are taken from; the other Alphabetical. The first most useful in the Church; the last, for finding any Anthem when the beginning of it is known.

The whole concludes with a Table, containing the Names &c. of those Masters whose works are us'd in this Collection, with an Account of the time they liv'd in: And here the Collector desires he may not be thought presumptuous, for giving the Title of Dr. of Musick, to that excellent Master Orlando Gibbons: Such as have any regard for the Testimony of the late Learned Dr. Aldrich before-nam'd, will be satisfied when they are inform'd, that upon a search, he did affirm, the University of Oxford had made a Present of that Degree to him.

It may possibly be expected, that something more shou'd be said of the several Masters Works and Characters; but that is beyond the Collector's Province; and he is sensible, that as his greatest Encomiums wou'd not render the Ashes of the Dead more esteem'd; so that they would much offend the Modesty of the Living: He therefore leaves them to their own Works, which will doubtless last to Posterity; not questioning, but they who have heard them perform'd, by the celebrated Voices now in Her Majesties Chappel, will readily subscribe to this Opinion.

Notwithstanding the Care that has been taken, it is not improbable but there may be some Mistakes, which the Collector hopes will be excus'd; and that he shall nevertheless obtain his principal End, which was the Incitement of Devotion in such solemn Services of the Church, as are accompanied with the Harmony of Divine Musick.

FULL ANTHEMS.

Lord the Maker of all things,
We pray thee now in this Evening,
To defend us thro' thy mercy,
From all deceit of our Enemies:
Let us neither deluded be,
Good Lord with Dream or Fantasie.
Our hearts waking in thee thou keep,
That we in Sin fall not on sleep.
O Father thro' thy blessed Son,
Grant us this our Petition,

To

To whom with the Holy Ghost always
In Heav'n and Earth be laud and praise.
Compos'd by K. Henry VIII.

O Lord give thy Holy Spirit into our hearts, and lighten our understanding, that we may stand in the fear of thy Name all the days of our life, and may know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent. Mr. Tallis.

I Call and cry to thee, O Lord,
Give ear unto my plaint;
Bow down thine eyes and mark my heavy plight.
And how my Soul doth faint:
For I have many ways offended thee,
Forget my wickedness, O Lord I beseech thee.
Mr. Tallis.

Pf. 25. C All to remembrance, O Lord, thy
v. 5. tender mercies: and thy loving kind-thou on me, O Lord, for thy goodness.

For all the virtues of Heaven praise thee, and unto thee belongeth all glory world without end. Amen.

PSALM 39. Verse 6.

Ehold thou hast made my days as it were a span long: and mine
Age is even as nothing in respect of thee, and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

7. For Man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain: he hea-peth up riches and cannot tell who shall gather them.

8. And

8. And now, Lord, what is my hope? truly my hope is even in thee.

13. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears, consider my calling: hold not thy peace at my tears.

14. For I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner: as all my fathers were.

15. O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength: before I go hence, and be no more seen.

By. Dr. Orl. Gibbons.

Pf. 2. v. 1. THE Lord is my Light and my Salvation; whom then shall I fear: the Lord is the strength of my life; of whom then shall I be afraid?

2. When the wicked, ev'n mine enemies, and my foes came upon me to eat up my flesh: they stumbled and fell.

3. Tho' an host of men were laid against me, yet shall not my heart be afraid: and tho' there rose up war against me, yet will I put my trust in him.

4. One thing have I desir'd of the Lord, which I will require: even that I may dwell in the House of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the fair beauty of the Lord, and to visit his Temple.

5. For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his Tabernacle: yea, in the secret place of his dwelling shall he hide me, and set me upon a rock of stone.

6. And now shall he lift up mine head; above mine enemies round about me.

7. Therefore will I offer in his dwelling an oblation oblation with great gladness: I will sing and speak praises unto the Lord. Hallelujah. Amen.

2. How long shall I seek counsel in my soul, and be so vexed in my heart: how long shall mine enemies triumph over me?

3. Consider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, that I sleep not in death.

4. Lest mine enemy say, I have prevailed against him: for if I be cast down, they that trouble me will rejoyce at it.

5. But my trust is in thy mercy: and my heart is joyful in thy Salvation.

6. I will sing of the Lord, because he hath dealt so lovingly with me: yea I will praise the name of the Lord most Highest.

MAN that is born of a woman, hath but a short time to live, and is full of misery.

He cometh up, and is cut down like a flower: he fleeth as it were a shadow, and never continueth in one stay.

In the midst of life we are in death: of whom may we seek for succour, but thee, O Lord, who for our sins are justly displeased?

Yet, O Lord most holy, O Lord most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, deliver us not into the bitter pains of eternal death. Thou knowest, Lord, the secrets of our hearts, shut not thy merciful ears unto our prayers; but spare us, but spare us, Lord most holy, O God most mighty, O holy and most merciful Saviour, suffer us not at our last hour for any pains of death to fall from thee. Dr. Tudway.

PSALM 115. Verse 1.

NOT unto us O Lord, not unto us, but to thy Name give the Praise.

4. For thou art my strong rock and my castle ; be thou also my guide, and lead me for thy name sake.

5. Draw me out of the net that they have laid privily for me ; for thou art my strength.

6. Into thy hands I commend my spirit ; for thou hast redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth.

Mr. Weldon.

Communion Service.

Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned, be favourable O Lord, be favourable to thy People, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the Merits, and Mediation of thy Blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mr. Weldon.

VERSE ANTHEMS.

PSALM 22. Verse 1.

O Lord my God, look upon me; why hast thou forsaken me; and art so far from my health, and from the words of my complaint?

14. I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart also in the midst of my body is even like melting wax.

19. But be not thou far from me O Lord: thou art my succour, hast thee to help me.

15. My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums: and thou shalt bring me into the dust of death.

16. For many dogs are come about me: and the council of the wicked layeth siege against me.

17. They pierced my hands and my feet, I may tell all my bones: they stand staring and looking upon me.

18. They part my garments among them: and cast lots upon my vesture.

19. But be not thou, &c.

Mr. Humphrys.

16. The sorrows of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my troubles.

17. Look upon my adversity and misery: and forgive me all my sins.

18. Consider mine enemies how many they are; and they bear a tyrannous hate against me.

19. O keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be confounded, for I have put my trust in thee.

Dr. Blow.

Pf. 85. I Will hearken what the Lord will say concerning me: for he shall speak peace unto his

9. For his salvation is nigh them that fear him: that glory may dwell in our land.

10. Mercy and truth are met together: righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11. Truth shall flourish out of the earth, and Righteousness hath looked down from heaven.

12. Yea the Lord shall shew loving-kindness: and our land shall give her increase.

Dr. Blow.

Pf. 103. Praise the Lord O my soul: and all that is within me praise his holy name.

2. Praise the Lord, O my soul: and forget not all his benefits;

3. Who forgiveth all thy sin: and healeth all thine infirmities;

4. Who saveth thy life from destruction: and crowneth thee with mercy and loving-kindness.

20. O praise the Lord ye angels of his, ye that excel in strength: ye that fulfil his commandment, and hearken unto the voice of his words.

21. O praise the Lord all ye his hosts: ye servants of his that do his pleasure.

22. O speak good of the Lord, all ye works of his, in all places of his dominion: praise thou the Lord, O my soul.

Dr. Croft.

Pf. 119. Lord what love have I unto thy law: all the day long is my study in it.

2. Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me.

4. I am wiser than the aged: because I keep thy commandments.

5. I have refrained my feet from every evil way: that I may keep thy word.

25. My praise is of thee in the great congregation ; my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.

26. The poor shall eat and be satisfied : they that seek after the Lord, shall praise him ; your heart shall live for ever.

27. All the ends of the world shall remember themselves, and be turned unto the Lord : and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before him.

Mr. Goldwin.

Pf. 121. I Will lift up mine eyes unto the hills: from whence cometh my help,

2. My help cometh even from the Lord: who hath made heaven and earth.
